Managing Legal Risks in Early Childhood Programs: How to Prevent Flare-Ups from Becoming Lawsuits

By Holly Elissa Bruno and Tom Copeland

"This book is a must-read for every child care owner or director. The complexity of legal issues is explained in a way anyone can understand. Sample policies provided make for easy implementation. This book will help everyone (the child care programs, the child care staff, the parents, and most importantly the children served). This book is a priceless resource for the child care community." —Ann Ditty, Past President, National Association for Regulatory Administration

Written by two lawyers with extensive experience working in the child care field, this easy-to-use guide includes:

- Vignettes of everyday dilemmas, such as what to say to a parent or caregiver who may be under the influence or what to do if no one picks up a child.
- Proven solutions and innovative approaches for each dilemma.
- “Think About It” sidebars to assist in the decision-making process.
- Sample parental consent and waiver forms.

Holly Elissa Bruno is an author, keynote speaker, and host of Heart to Heart Conversations on Leadership on BAMradionetwork.com. She was assistant attorney general for the state of Maine and assistant dean at the University of Maine School of Law. Tom Copeland is an author, trainer, and advocate for the business of child care. His blog (www.tomcopelandblog.com) is one of the nation's leading sources of information on the business of child care.
